LOUISVILLE CHAPTER
KENTUCKY NO. 1

Presents

Its Sixteenth Annual

BARBERSHOP QUARTET and CHORUS
MUSICAL

One For The Record

Welcome . . .

Speaking for all the Thorobreds it is indeed my privilege to welcome you, our esteemed audience and patrons to our presentation this evening.

Tonight you are witnessing the culmination of many man-hours of labor, conceived primarily for your enjoyment, but also with another motive.

It is our hope that, in addition to a sparkling evening of vocal harmony, Barbershop Style, we will be able to sow a few seeds of thought in your mind. Provocative thoughts that make you wonder what is the bond that links men of so many walks of life together; thoughts that ask the question, "Why do they seem to have so much fun?" And finally thoughts that indicate these gentlemen are not the "Lamp-post Howlers" so often associated with the words Barbershop Harmony.

These men truly love to sing and they have dedicated themselves wholeheartedly to a hobby that embraces the entire nation as well as the Canadian Provinces. They join with over 30,000 other men with the common denominator known as the "Ringing Chord".

We all are proud of the Louisville Chapter not only because of the high place it holds in the competitive aspect of our Society, but also because of the way it has been accepted by you, the Louisville home folks. It is not without a great deal of pride that we point to our many appearances before your churches, schools, conventions, and business meetings, knowing that our efforts will offend no one. Our point is simply this: If we can in some way indicate to you the sincerity and dedication of the men you will see tonight on our stage, then the purpose of this show has been fulfilled.

The young men from Miami, Florida who are our headliners this evening exemplify the spirit of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. The Sun Tones will, through the medium of their fine voices, and with no "gimmick" whatsoever, demonstrate the talent and professionalism that has endeared them to all barbershoppers throughout the land. Welcome them as the Louisville Chapter welcomes them, and through your applause and acceptance let them know how privileged we are to have them as our Stars.

Yours in Harmony,

Jim Miller
President
